TYLER FLOOD

A stellar reputation for successful DWI defense

TYLER FLOOD IS AN INTENSELY FOCUSED ATTORNEY. HIS practice is devoted exclusively to defending people charged with offenses relating to intoxication, primarily driving while intoxicated.

"I saw that there were a lot of people pleading guilty to DWI when there was a great deal of reasonable doubt," he says. "I am passionate about getting justice for people who are victims of overzealous police officers."

Flood's strategy is simple: aggressively fight the charges by out-researching, out-preparing and out-performing opposing counsel. In short, he knows his way to the courthouse—and what to do when he gets there.

ZEALOUS ADVOCATE His meticulous preparation, deep understanding of the law and zealous advocacy has yielded impressive results for his clients. Flood finds inspiration from greats such as Clarence Darrow, who believed that the real lawyers are the trial lawyers who try cases to juries.

"Word gets around when you know how to handle a DWI case properly and are willing to go to trial," Flood says. "Then it's your clients who reap the rewards."

Flood's exceptional record is only one reason he has been named to Texas Rising Stars. He also is a board-certified criminal defense attorney by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization who has also been trained as an instructor in field sobriety testing. In addition to DWI, Flood defends people who are charged with boating while intoxicated, flying while intoxicated and intoxication manslaughter.

THE PERSONAL TOUCH Because Tyler Flood & Associates is a small firm, clients can expect the personal touch. The firm's lawyers, paralegals and support staff are compassionate and caring. They realize that the most important legal matter to any individual is his or her own case.

"I treat every client's case like it was my own," Flood says. "I stay in close communication with each client, returning phone calls right away."

With a deep and abiding respect for the U.S. Constitution, Flood is a champion for people who have been charged with DWI, safeguarding their rights as citizens.

"There's nothing like the feeling of bringing home a successful outcome for my clients," Flood says. "It's a very good feeling for me, but more important, it's a tremendous relief for them."
